29 March 2021

We've received the following important message from CAIE:

"In the last few weeks and months, CAIE planned for, and it was expected that exams can and would go ahead for schools in the UAE. Our policy is that in countries where government directives mean that exams cannot take place, we would look at switching from exams to School-Assessed Grades using student work, so that students can progress despite the impact of the pandemic.

CAIE received news of a directive from the UAE Ministry of Education which makes it impossible for exams to go ahead in the UAE.

This means that exams for Cambridge IGCSE, O Level, and International AS & A Level will no longer take place in the UAE in the June 2021 series, and we will switch to an approach based on School Assessed Grades."

Best regards,

Head of Examinations
