The students were supposed to attend only half a day of school on that day and then teachers would continue with staff training till late afternoon. To ensure that we are ready for any unexpected circumstances that may necessitate online learning for our students, AUS plans to trial our online-learning platform, Edunation, on that day.

Therefore, students will attend their registration lesson (7.30am) and other academic lessons till 11.25am this coming Wednesday, 2nd November. Teachers will deliver the lessons from school with Zoom links that will be shared via Edunation and all tasks and mini-assessments for that morning will be submitted via the Edunation platform.

Please share any queries regarding the arrangements with the relevant Heads of Section.
