Dear Parents,

As we welcome November, we are not only greeted by pleasant weather but also embark on a month filled with a plethora of academic and enjoyable activities.

This past week has been especially fruitful, starting with observing National Flag Day, a day that promoted unity across our nation. Our Primary Theme Week showcased the incredible learning skills of our students, and it was delightful to see positive partnerships between parents and teachers' flourish. This collaboration has not only motivated our children but has also deepened our commitment to our three-tiered partnership. We take great pride in witnessing our students make measurable progress on their learning journeys. The themes we've explored truly embody the spirit of legacy, harmony, and unity as we celebrate our 50th anniversary.

We would also like to extend our gratitude to our parents for supporting our FS team during their assembly on November 6th. Your encouragement motivated our team to provide the best learning opportunities for our children; continue to be our critical friends, as your involvement makes a difference.

The "Design and Challenge 2025" event, organised by the secondary Design and Technology department on November 7th, showcased students' skills and awareness, guided by a dedicated team. The prototypes not only demonstrated real-world applications but also emphasized sustainable initiatives and boosted community awareness through innovative ideas.

On November 7th, we collectively observed the Dubai Fitness Challenge, embracing the spirit of physical and mental well-being as a community. It was an inspiring initiative to encourage us all to stay active and focused, both within and outside the school environment.

Looking ahead, our Term 1 summative assessment schedules have been shared by the respective Section Heads and team leaders. We encourage you to stay connected with your child's teachers to receive full support for any subjects or learning needs that may arise.
